On 29 April, official candidates for president of the European Commission will debate in Maastricht. This Maastricht Debate will be broadcast live across the European Union. The 90-minute event will feature the front-runners to replace Jean-Claude Juncker as President of the European Commission. As in 2014, the debate is particularly focussed on the concerns of students and young people across Europe, many of whom will be voting for the first time.

For more information please see:

In Vienna we invite you to watch the debate with us and discuss the positions and perspectives of the front-runners on Europe. This is a cooperative event of the University of Vienna and Europe Direct Vienna.
